

I would appreciate keeping the Wisconsin no call list as is. If I want someone's services including a bank, I will contact them. If I have in fact gone to a different bank for whatever reason I do not need the old bank calling me trying to win me back or sell me something else or hound me because I left them. What would make them any different than any other business trying to sell me their product. The banking industry does not always know what is best for me and should not assume that they do. If I want their product, I WILL contact them, I do not want them contacting me. It has been very peaceful with the no call list and please keep it that way. Thanks for your time, Sherry